

Figure 5: The principle of registral return. Registral return refers to proximity to the first tone of the implicative interval.

