

Figure 7: The principle of closure. Closure occurs when the registral direction changes, or when a large interval is followed by a smaller interval.

